Programme:

The 2th Bicyclos International School and Workshop addresses all R&I staff from public and private sector with interest in Carbohydrate development, in particular, Cyclodextrins. On February 18-19th, invited experts will deliver seminars covering the broad array of fields where Cyclodextrins find applications in, from healthcare to environmental sciences. On February 19-20th, further topics related to (i) the preparation of research projects, (ii) the application of AI to molecular design, data analysis, and scientific writing, (iii) the intellectual property protection, and (iv) scientific broadcasting and communication will be developed through a series of seminars and hands-on training sessions conducted by experts.

Registration:

Registration is mandatory for all participants (Bicyclos registration form). Registration is free for Bicyclos staff members. A registration fee (200 €) has been established for external participants. Registrations comprise participation in the event and coffee breaks on February 18-20th.
